

IFRS: Ontario Securities Commission's Perspective

Date: Tuesday February 23, 2010

Time: 12:00 – 2:00 PM

Location: The National Club, Main Dining Room, 303 Bay Street, Toronto

Function Type: Luncheon Seminar

OVERVIEW

While IFRS will provide investors with more comprehensive financial information, it is principle based and gives management considerable flexibility in financial reporting. The implementation of IFRS will pose significant challenges to investors, analysts and regulators. This Part 3 of the IFRS luncheon series examines the impact on IFRS from the securities regulatory perspective. This includes: current IFRS changeover disclosure requirements, the proposed IFRS filing requirements, and the regulator's role in assisting investors and analysts on the extensive analytical challenges posed by IFRS especially during the transition period.

MODERATOR

Rossa O'Reilly, CFA, Managing Director, Institutional Equity Research, CIBC World Markets

Rossa is a managing director at CIBC World Markets with 38 years of experience analyzing publicly traded equities and stock market strategy. He is a past board member and chairman of the CFA Institute. He has also been a member of the CICA's Accounting Standards Board and is a past president of the Toronto CFA Society.

SPEAKER

Marion Kirsh, FCA, Associate Chief Accountant, Ontario Securities Commission

Marion is the Associate Chief Accountant of the Ontario Securities Commission. Her responsibilities include lending support internally on addressing policy and operational issues, and externally working with bodies that play an important role in promoting a high quality framework for financial reporting in Canada. She leads the IFRS Policy Project and IFRS training for staff for the Canadian Securities Administrators. Marion is a Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Ontario. She worked for RBC Financial Group in roles including CFO Royal Trust, CFO RBC Insurance, and Chief Accountant. Marion also chairs the Board of Directors of the Canadian Cancer Society's Ontario Division
