Presentation of upcoming activities

The association will also be revealing its 2016-2017 program today. Events planned this year include the 2016 Financial Executive Forum, which will be held on November 30, 2016 at the Ritz-Carlton in Montreal, where the Quebec chapter will be providing a half-day of professional development for senior corporate financial executives.

Through such events, the association provides opportunities for development and sharing of knowledge to help members reflect upon the profession and the environment in which it is evolving.

The Quebec Chapter will also be hosting the seventh edition of its prestigious “Aces of finance” competition, which recognizes the contribution of outstanding Québec financial executives. The call for candidacies of the 2017 edition will begin this November.

Dedicated Board Members

The Board is composed of volunteer members who are committed to the association's growth and continued success. This commitment is crucial for members of the association, as it supports the development and direction of proposed activities, ensuring their relevance for all members.

“The association allows us to take part in networking and sharing opportunities, where everyone involved is faced with the challenges that drives our profession,” says Louis Marcotte, Chairman of the Quebec Chapter of FEI Canada. “This is the reality that drives us, as members of the Board and as executives in our respective companies.”
