EVENTS & CPD

As a member, you may earn Continuing Professional Development credits (CPD) while accessing a full roster of membership benefits. Most of our CPD-accredited events are free for members, including breakfast seminars and webinars. FEI Canada's annual conference is the highlight of each year. It's a three-day event packed full of learning and fun – a chance to meet members from across Canada and to catch up with old friends. The conference, which is held in a different part of Canada each year, earns attendees up to 12 CPD credits. Held in conjunction with the Smith School of Business at Queen’s University, this executive education program equips senior financial executives with the insights they need to become more effective leaders and better strategic advisors to their CEOs and Boards of Directors. Learn from top-tier university faculty and a prestigious Advisory Board that includes several of Canada’s CFO of the Year™ Award recipients who contribute their extensive experiences and priceless industry knowledge to the classroom. The curriculum is uniquely tailored for CFOs and other senior financial executives, and is built around three pillars that each form a program module: Leadership, Strategy & Leading Change, and Strategic Execution.

THOUGHT LEADERSHIP

The Policy Forum develops FEI Canada's public positions, provides guidance and expert opinion on topics relevant to members, and advocates on behalf of financial executives on issues of current importance to government, regulators and accounting standards' bodies. Working in conjunction with the Policy Forum, The Canadian Financial Executives Research Foundation (CFERF) conducts research studies on topics of importance to members. Subject matter experts from our National Strategic Partners provide insights to our Policy Forum.

"ONE OF THE MAIN REASONS I JOINED FEI CANADA WAS TO GAIN ACCESS TO ITS THOUGHT LEADERSHIP."
