

Tim MacDonald is a Partner with EY's Transaction Advisory Services based in Toronto. He specializes in the Operational Transaction Services practice, focusing on M&A strategy, merger integration planning and implementation, and divestiture management services. Tim has over 30 years of global management consulting experience in mergers, acquisitions & divestitures, business strategy and organization transformation in financial services, telecommunications, consumer products and private equity. He was recently the President of A.T. Kearney Ltd. in Canada.