

Biography – Mike McPhee

A native of Cape Breton, Mike is best known for his professional hockey career that spanned 11 years with Montreal, Minnesota and Dallas. Few people have such an intimate understanding of the discipline, focus and teamwork that it takes to achieve success at the highest level. Mike has lived it. In Montreal, Mike's ability to lead was evident as he proudly wore the Assistant Captain's A on his jersey. Mike is a three-time winner of the Jacques Beauchamp trophy as the Montreal Canadiens' unsung hero, he has played in the NHL All-Star game and in 1986 he reached the pinnacle of hockey by winning the Stanley Cup with Montreal.

Mike has always recognized the value of planning for the future and as his NHL career came to an end, Mike planned for his future by completing his MBA at the University of Dallas in 1996. Mike also holds a B.Sc. – Civil Engineering from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, which he received in 1982. In 1998, his passion for business and finance led him from scoring goals to a career helping people achieve their financial goals. Mike puts the same skills that made him successful on the ice to work for his clients, using a disciplined, focused strategic approach to wealth management to help his clients develop an individual game plan to reach their financial goals.

Mike's entrepreneurial spirit allows him to continually find new opportunities to enhance his clients' wealth. Mike's own personal commitment to providing the highest level of expertise to his clients is reflected through his Certified Financial Planner (CFP) designation – the most recognized and respected designation in the industry.

Married with two children, Mike still enjoys a passion for physical activity and sport. It's a passion that is shared by his wife Jane Anne, a marathon runner, and his two children, Adam and Alyson, who are both athletes.

In addition to helping his clients, Mike can be found helping the community through his charitable affiliations. Since returning to Halifax in 1996, he has chaired the Metro United Way Capital Campaign, served on the board and executive of Sport Nova Scotia and sat on the organizing committee for the Danny Gullivan Golf Tournament. Currently, he is on the board of directors for Kidsport Canada, the International Hockey Heritage Centre and Digby Golf Classic.
