

President's Report - June

Our Chapter's financial year end concluded May 31st, making this a time for reflection and planning ahead.

We have had an active year and we all owe thanks to our hard working events sub-committee headed by Brad Cruickshank. Our participation in the National Breakfast Series sessions here in Vancouver has been remarkably high. On the other hand, our participation in Chapter events has, on occasion been lighter than we hoped for.

We are concerned about our Chapter and are now close to concluding our survey of our members. I thank you for your participation in that survey if you have already and if you have not, I urge you to do so. This survey is an opportunity to have direct input into how we plan our next year's activities.

You probably saw that we cancelled the May 29th dinner, which had been planned for Surrey. We did this out of respect for the high profile speakers that were coming to the event as our registration was far less than we had expected. The choice of Surrey for an event has made at the suggestion of several members - to provide the opportunity for members living and working in the eastern end of the metropolis to attend an event at a more convenient location. The result was disappointing, to state the obvious, but a good learning experience.

Please do join us at the AGM, which is set for a harbour cruise on June 25th. I am looking forward to visiting with each and every one who attends. We'll do the obligatory AGM procedures. For me, your thoughts on how to make our Chapter more relevant and meaningful for you would be much appreciated, as we are now well advanced in our planning for next year.

I look forward to seeing many of you on the 25th, and for those who cannot make it, let me wish you a happy and safe summer.

Survey Update

Thank you to everyone who recently took the time to complete our Events survey! We are compiling the results, and will incorporate as many of your suggestions as possible in designing the program for the 2008/2009 Chapter year. In addition, we will summarize the results for dissemination in an upcoming Newsletter.

Special thanks to Christopher Sheedy, Director, Membership and Chapter Relations, FEI Canada who helped out with the technology for the survey!

Membership Report

The final membership results are in for the year. FEI has 2127 members in Canada, an 11% increase for the year, this drops to just over 5% when resignations and retirements of members are included. Vancouver gained 28 new members or 11% but resignations, and transfer out reduce our growth to slightly over 3%.

The chapter has 197 active members and our retired members (Feisters) number 66.

The board will be considering how to grow the membership and would be pleased to hear from chapter members as to what makes it worthwhile to be a member of FEI. What do you consider to be valuable and how can this be conveyed to a potential member?

The AGM is coming up and this year a dinner cruise is planned. This is a great event where a member can bring their spouse. See you at the AGM.

Jeff Champion*Four New CICA Publications on Corporate Governance

The Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants has recently issued four new publications from the Risk Management and Governance Board.

20 Questions Directors of Not-for Profit Organizations Should Ask About Strategy and Planning by Hugh Lindsay provides guidance to members of not-for-profit boards of directors on their responsibility for strategy, planning and budgeting. It describes:

- the role of the board in developing and approving strategy, plans and budgets
 - the reasons for planning and budgeting, and
- the processes by which strategies, plans and budgets are typically developed and approved.

Four New CICA Publications on Corporate Governance

20 Questions Directors Should Ask About Crisis Management by Doug Enns and Hugh Lindsay is designed to help members of boards prepare for and handle crises. It is intended primarily for directors and boards of publicly-listed companies but, as good practice, may be of value to other organizations. The document was originally published as “Crisis Management for Directors” in 2001 – just after the attacks on the World Trade Center on September 11, 2001 and shortly before the collapses of Enron and other major corporations. This updated version reflects the lessons from these and other events which represent extreme examples of crises for organizations and the people who are affected by what happens to them.

20 Questions Directors Should Ask About Directors’ and Officers’ Liability Indemnification and Insurance by Richard J. Berrow explains the protection available to them under corporate indemnification and directors’ and officers’ insurance.

20 Questions Directors Should Ask about Special Committees by William K. Orr, and Aaron J. Atkinson. A special committee is a committee of directors established by the board to undertake certain tasks delegated by the board in a variety of different situations, from a takeover bid to an allegation of wrongdoing. This document provides some general principles to guide directors in determining whether and when to establish a special committee as well as providing a general understanding of the duties of committee members and the manner in which those duties should be discharged.

These and other documents in the 20 Questions and CFO series are available for purchase through CICA's Risk management and Governance website (www.rmgbc.ca) in hard copy or as downloads. CAs can download them free through the Knotia Knowledge website - CICA Standards and Guidance - Risk Management and Governance.

The annual FEI Vancouver Chapter Golf Tournament was held on May 14 at UBC Golf Course. The tournament was a sell-out with eighty golfers signed up for a day of fun, prizes and to raise funds for our supported charity, Kidsafe (www.kidsafe.ca). The weather gods started the day with a light rain but ended the day in bright sunshine. Over $14,000 was raised for Kidsafe and all the participants, sponsors and prize donors should be congratulated for their generosity and in making the golf day a huge success.

Your Golf Committee, chaired by yours truly, was enthusiastic and dedicated. The committee included, Brad Bardau, Colin Bennett, Frank Hunaus, Frederick Metcalfe and Issa Nakhleh. Many thanks for all their efforts in making a very successful tournament.

As well, many very generous sponsors and prize donors and a number of volunteers contributed to a great golf day and a successful fund raising for Kidsafe. He generously donated the tickets for auction which raised $1800 of the $2800 total. Many thanks Jeffrey.

The reverse draw was also a big hit raising $595 for Kidsafe. The big winner was Wayne Audette who received a tax receipt for the amount raised by the reverse draw.
